01. Love is the Answer

Seek to see the best, deep within yourself,
And seek to find the same, in everybody else.
Trials befall us all, whichever shore is home,
Look through your heart to view,
The blessings that are your own.
Everything is light!

And Love is the only answer, to the happiness we're after,
Otherwise we're just, chasing our tails.

Find the truth within yourself, that you already know,
Awaken it into your life, and let the seedling grow.
Allow the sun to shine on you, let shadows melt away,
Embrace the calm and loving arms,
And take their light into your day.
Everything is light!

All there is, All that is, All is well.
Everything is light!

02. Unity

Unity, that's you and me, in harmony.
Unity, of humanity, in equality.

Service, and mercy, kindness and grace,
Sacrifice, and gratitude, forgiveness and faith.
All your good intentions, will they be enough?
All these words are hollow, unless they're filled with love.

Compassion, and patience, hope, and community,
Justice, and truth, respect, and humility.
All your good intentions, will they be enough?
All these words are hollow, unless they're filled with love.

I am you, as you are me, we share this world, in unity!

03. The Love you Give

You are more than you know, beyond skin there is soul,
After life, a place to go.
And there is purpose to each birth, each and every no less worth,
We come to touch the earth!

How many smiles did you grow?
How many hearts did you make glow?
How did you aid the fallen soul?

Did you hear, the tearful plea?
Did you walk the extra mile to see?
Did you act on the selfless deed?
Its not how long we live, it's about the love we give!

All we know to be, seems a mystery,
But we look so hard to see.
Bound by time to spend a life, you are energy and light,
A spark of something bright.

How many ways did you care? How much joy did you share?
How many hearts did you repair?
Did you wipe the tears away? Did your words comfort the stray?
Did you lighten someone's day?

Has no saviour to be served, lets no cry go unheard,
Loves you deeper than words.
Is not the name you hold, is the sweetest song composed.
Is a truth we are not told.
Cannot be defined, lays outside the mind,
Is eternal and divine.
You must discover on your own, begin the journey home,
It's the answer you already know.

04. Heal Yourself

Heal yourself and you heal the world,
Let me hear you say, I'm happy to be here!

It's in my mind, and in every thought,
The way I feel about the way I feel.
No one knows me better than I know myself,
It's facing fears, I've tried so hard to conceal.

I just drift away...

It's building bridges and breaking walls,
By living every moment, for as long as it lasts.
It's making all those mountains tumble,
that I thought I couldn't climb,
And being happy how I am, and not a prisoner to the past!

In the temple of your body, in the house of your soul,
Say a prayer for the one, in the name of the whole.

You don't need to be, anybody but yourself
And life is the religion, of mystery in motion.
You owe it to yourself, to let your dreams out of the dungeon,
Reality is only, chasing waves upon an ocean.

And as I drift away
Am I dreaming? Are we dreaming?

05. Draw Near

Guide and inspire me, and gently remind me,
Stand close beside me, and whisper your thoughts,

Draw near, to me.

Help me forgive, and to live as I should,
Help me achieve, my highest good.

Draw near.

06. Soul fire

Don't you hurry, just you take your time,
There's no need to worry, you're doing everything just fine.
Don't look down, for you have the face of an angel,
Unfold your wings, don't hide the divine inside you.

(Let it burn brighter) Let it burn brighter,
This divine light inside you,
(Light your soulfire) This divine light inside you.

Step in the fire, live only to inspire,
Breathe life in your dreams.
Build your love like a golden spire,
And shine, and shine.

Sail away from this world when your weary,
Let the wind in your dreams drive you far.
Chart the skies of your widest vision,
Set your course by the star in your heart.

07. Give All the Love you can

Can you show a little mercy, can you share a smile, or two?
Can you be a little kinder, many have begun, can you?

Can you take the hand in need, can you see the soul shine through?
Can you find some sympathy, many have begun, can you?

Can you care a little deeper, can you pray we make it through?
Can you find the inner-healer many have begun, can you?

Can you feel all hearts as one, can you see a world that's new?
Can you sing what must be sung, many have begun, can you?

Can you be strong for those in sorrow can you bring hope into view?
Can you light the path to follow, many have begun, can you?

Give all the love you can!

Can you hear your voice that's calling can you live in peace and truth?
Can you see the day that's dawning, many have begun, can you?

08. Listen Beyond the Words

Who can tell the sun how to shine?
Who can tell the wind how to blow?
Who can tell the sea how to swell?
Who can tell a flower how to grow?
Who can tell a heart how to beat?
Who can tell a bird how to fly?
Who can tell a clock how to tick?
Who can tell a breath how to sigh?
It's so easy, it's so easy!

Listen beyond the words, look beyond the skin,
Learn beyond belief, to see the soul within.

Who can tell a fish how to swim?
Who can tell a wheel how to turn?
Who can tell a cell to divide?
Who can tell a flame how to burn?
Who can tell a bell how to ring?
Who can tell a whale how to call?
Who can tell a stream how to flow?
Who can tell the rain how to fall?
It's so easy, it's so easy!

Wake up, wake up, you sleepy head,
It's time to stretch, and leave your bed.
Arise, arise, and wipe your eyes,
And feel the warmth, of a new day's light.

09. You are my Strength

Everybody got a burden, everybody got to carry a weight,
Just one thing of which I'm certain,
There's a hand to hold, on cloudy days.
You are my truth, that keeps me whole,
You are the hand that lifts my soul.

You, you are my strength, you are the place
Where my spirit can rest.
You, you are the light, you guide the way,
When I am lost and tired, you are my strength.

Everybody got some darkness,
everybody got a trouble or two,
But when life hits me the hardest,
I know for sure who I can turn to!
You are the mirror that I might see,
You are the measure, of all I could be!

10. One Drum, One Beat

And with each day we grow, but still so far to go,
To learn to live in peace, to use just what we need.
To celebrate all life, to honour all mankind,
To help when you are called, offer without reward
(Offer without reward).

One drum, one beat, one heart that never sleeps.
One world, to share, one chance to show we care.
One voice, to sing, one song in harmony.
One hand, to hold, one smile from soul to soul.

Look into a child's face, see the wonder and the grace,
See the innocence awake, there is hope for a better day.
And the land on which we live, is not ours to take or give,
We are guests and do not own, this Earth we call our home
(this Earth we call our home).

Put your hands out, in Union! Put your hands out, in Union!

One choice, take a stand, Hands held across the land.
One dream, one prayer, one day that peace will reign!

One drum, one beat. One heart that never sleeps.
One world, to share. One chance to show we care.
One choice, take a stand. Hands held across the land.
One dream, one prayer, one day that peace will reign!

11. A New Idea of Heaven

Let it shine!

Gathered here together, joined in celebration,
Voices raised in harmony, joy and jubilation.
Communities embracing, humanity as whole,
Knowing we are all connected, body mind and soul!

With a new idea of heaven! A new idea of heaven!
Let it shine!

Life is just the spirit in a moment's separation
No one's ever quite alone, in their hour of desperation.
Death is not an enemy, just a transformation,
New horizons will arise when we conquer confrontation.

With a new idea of heaven! A new idea of heaven!

I am the cup, come fill me up, 'til I overflow!
A vessel for healing, a hand for receiving light from the soul.
I am the cup, come fill me up, 'til I overflow!
A vessel for healing, a hand for receiving light from the soul.

Let's fill this world with love (repeat).

12. Let the World Awake to Love

Look out and look within, today you can begin,
Tomorrow doesn't mind, what you find!

This moment is your own,
Take hold and don't let go,
With just a little help,
You may surprise yourself!
May the power flow through you!
May this world be born anew!
May this sunrise heal all doubt!
May the light shine inside out!

Let the world awake to love! (x2)

You have all that you need, you just have to believe,
This world could come alive, if you give it a try.
And fear is just a child, that's scared and lost and tired,
If we take it to our heart, then the healing starts.
May the shadows wash away, to reveal a brighter day,
May the fear you feel subside, and be a blessing in disguise.

Let the world awake to love! (x2)

There's something more, in me and you, and it's waiting to shine through,
It's in a smile, it's nothing new, It's free to use, anytime you choose!
It's inside each, and everyone, it doesn't matter what you've done,
For you will find, when it finds you, you'll question all you thought you knew!

We could create a paradise, if we took the time to realise,
It's in our hands, and in our minds, just takes a moment, to decide.
We can build, or we can break! We can learn from our mistakes!
We turn away, or we embrace, to feel the sun upon our face!

Let the world awake to love!

13. All I Want

All I want, all I want, all I want, all I want,
Is a little peace and understanding in this world.

All I want, all I want, all I want, all I want,
Is a little peace and understanding in this world.

And with the motion of our minds,
and with all our thoughts, combined,
One silent prayer to the night.

And we can bring this dream alive!
We can bring this dream alive!
Bring this dream alive!
