

THE SPIRITUALISTS' NATIONAL UNION

SAFEGUARDING

The SNU has a policy which sets out how we will work together to help keep our people and our places safe for all. You can find this policy by going to our website www.snu.org.uk

02

01

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility

03

The head of Safeguarding is the SNU's Vice President

There is a central safeguarding team which will help support you in reporting concerns and getting help. You can email them at safeguarding@snu.org.uk or ring them 01279 816262

04

District Safeguarding Coordinator

05

Church Lead Trustee

06

07

If you have any concerns at any time we have a partnership with safeguarding charity Thirtyone:eight who can advise you.

Thirtyone:eight

0303 003 1111

Remember, if you have any urgent concern about someone's safety then contact the police on 999 or social services. You can find your local number on the internet. If you need advice on this or don't have access to the internet, call Thirtyone:eight.

08

09

Local Social Services Helpdesk

Adult Social Services

Children's Social Services

0161 234 5001

Thank you to everyone who takes the time to help keep others safe